

Research Landscape in ANZ: Pathways to Success

Professor Camile S Farah

BDS, MDS (OralMed OralPath), PhD, GCEd (HE), GCExLead, FRACDS (OralMed), FOMAA, FIAOO, FICD, FPFA

Professor of Oral Oncology, School of Dentistry, University of Western Australia

Head, School of Dentistry, University of Western Australia

Director, Oral Health Centre of Western Australia

Director, Australian Centre for Oral Oncology Research & Education

Specialist in Oral Medicine & Oral Pathology, Private Practice

Main points

- Importance of creating interest in dental research for our students
- Importance of mentoring by senior staff
- Importance of clearly articulating research and dental academia as a career option for students
- Importance of parties working together
- Importance of IADR ANZ working with ADRF